God called Abraham to leave his city of Ur and travel to a new land called Canaan. He took Lot, his nephew with him.

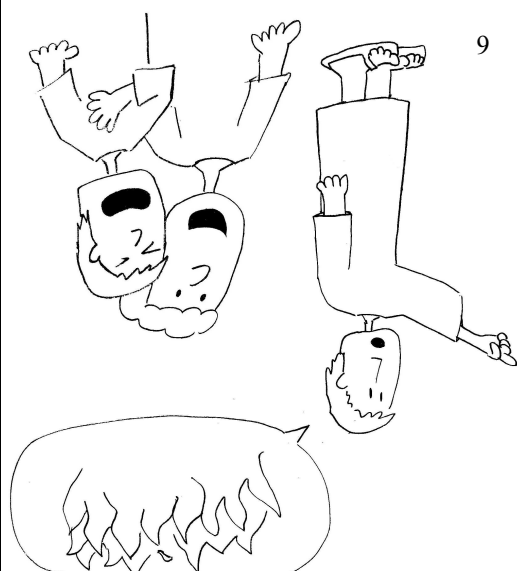

Lot and his daughters fled the city, but Lot's wife turned back into a statue made of salt.

Abraham. I will make your children as many as the stars.

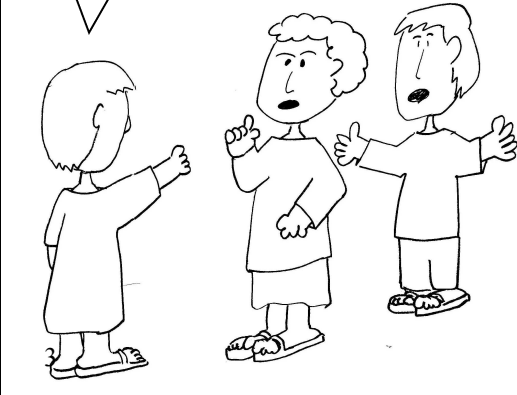

I believe you Lord.

The LORD sent angels to warn Lot to leave the city. His sons-in-law did not listen.

Take your sheep somewhere else. There isn't enough room here.

This is OUR pasture.

The shepherds of Lot and Abraham began to argue.

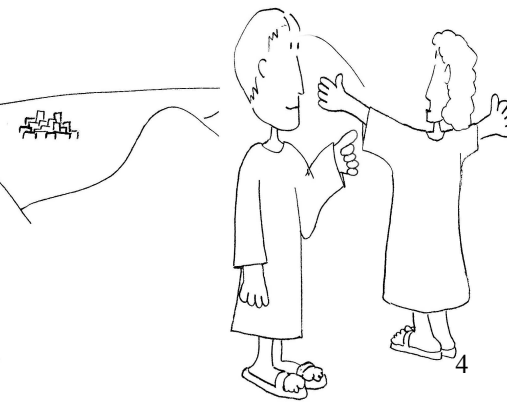

LORD, would you destroy the city if there are even as few as 10 righteous people there?

I hope Lot is OK in Sodom. The LORD says that it is a very wicked city.

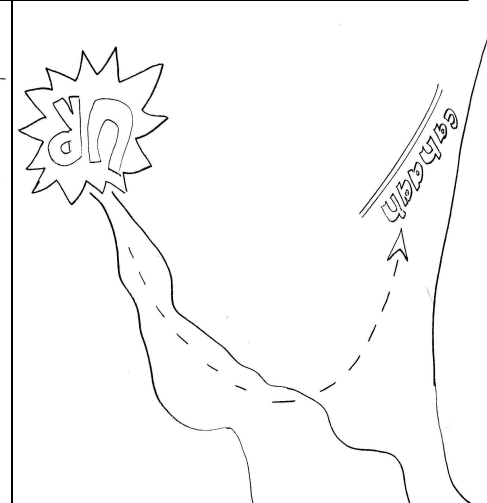

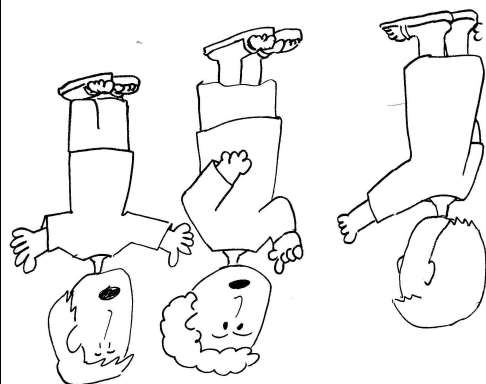

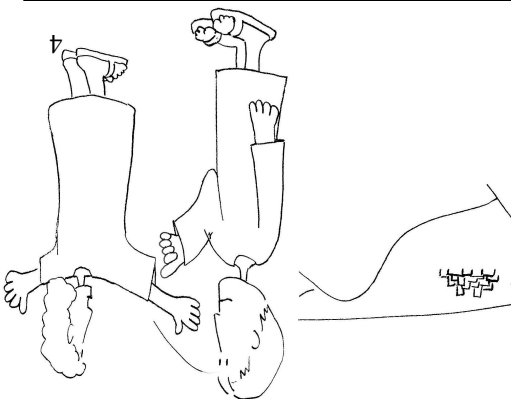

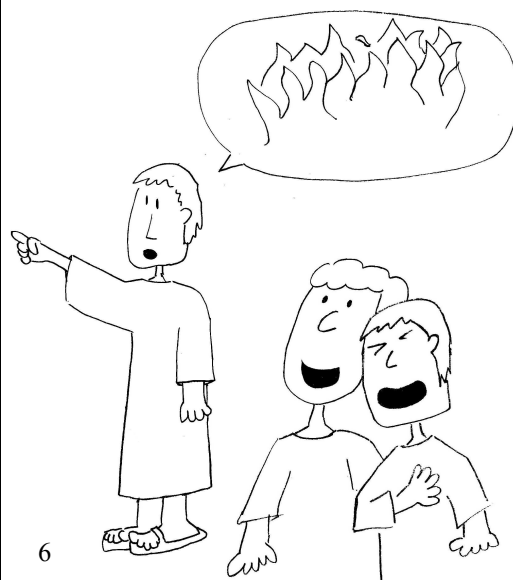

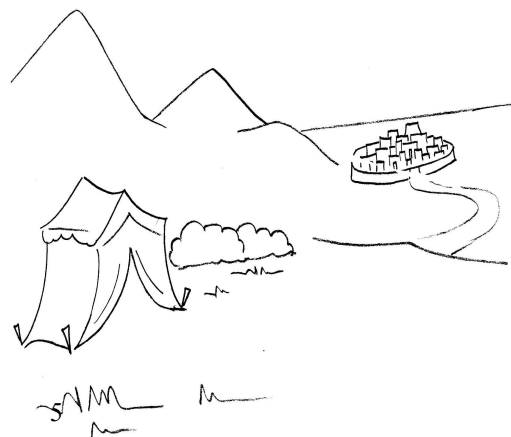

Lot. You can choose where to take your flocks. If you go to the left, I will go to the right.

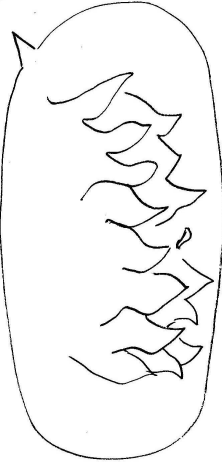

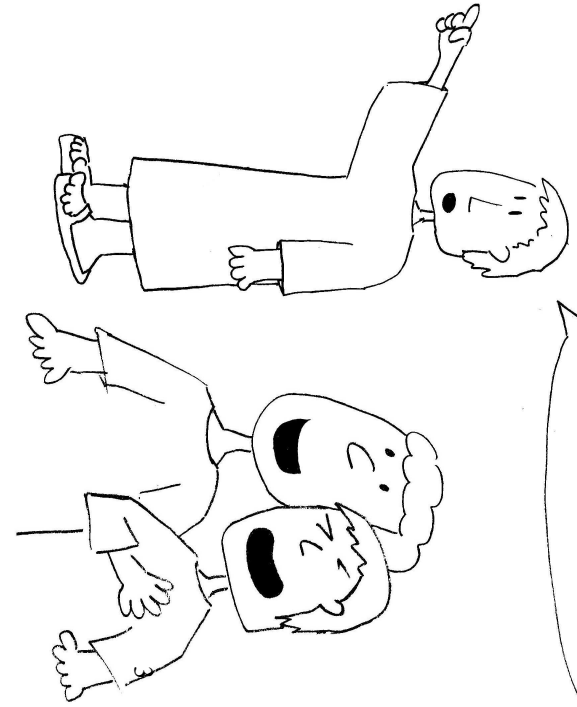

I like the pasture near the city of Sodom in the valley.
