Samuel served under the priest named Eli. Eli's own two sons were evil. God was preparing Samuel to become a great man of God.

In the middle of one night, Samuel heard someone calling his name. Eli told him that it was the Lord speaking to him.

Beginning that night, God began to use Samuel as one of the greatest prophets in Israel.

Samuel became an old man with great respect. However, the people eventually wanted a king. So God directed Samuel to anoint the first king Saul and then later, God chose David to be the king of Israel. Samuel was the last of the judges.

Hannah gave Samuel to serve the Lord in Shiloh. Every year she made him a new coat to wear when she came to visit him in the temple.

The Lord answered her prayer. She called his name Samuel, for she said, "I have asked for him from the LORD."

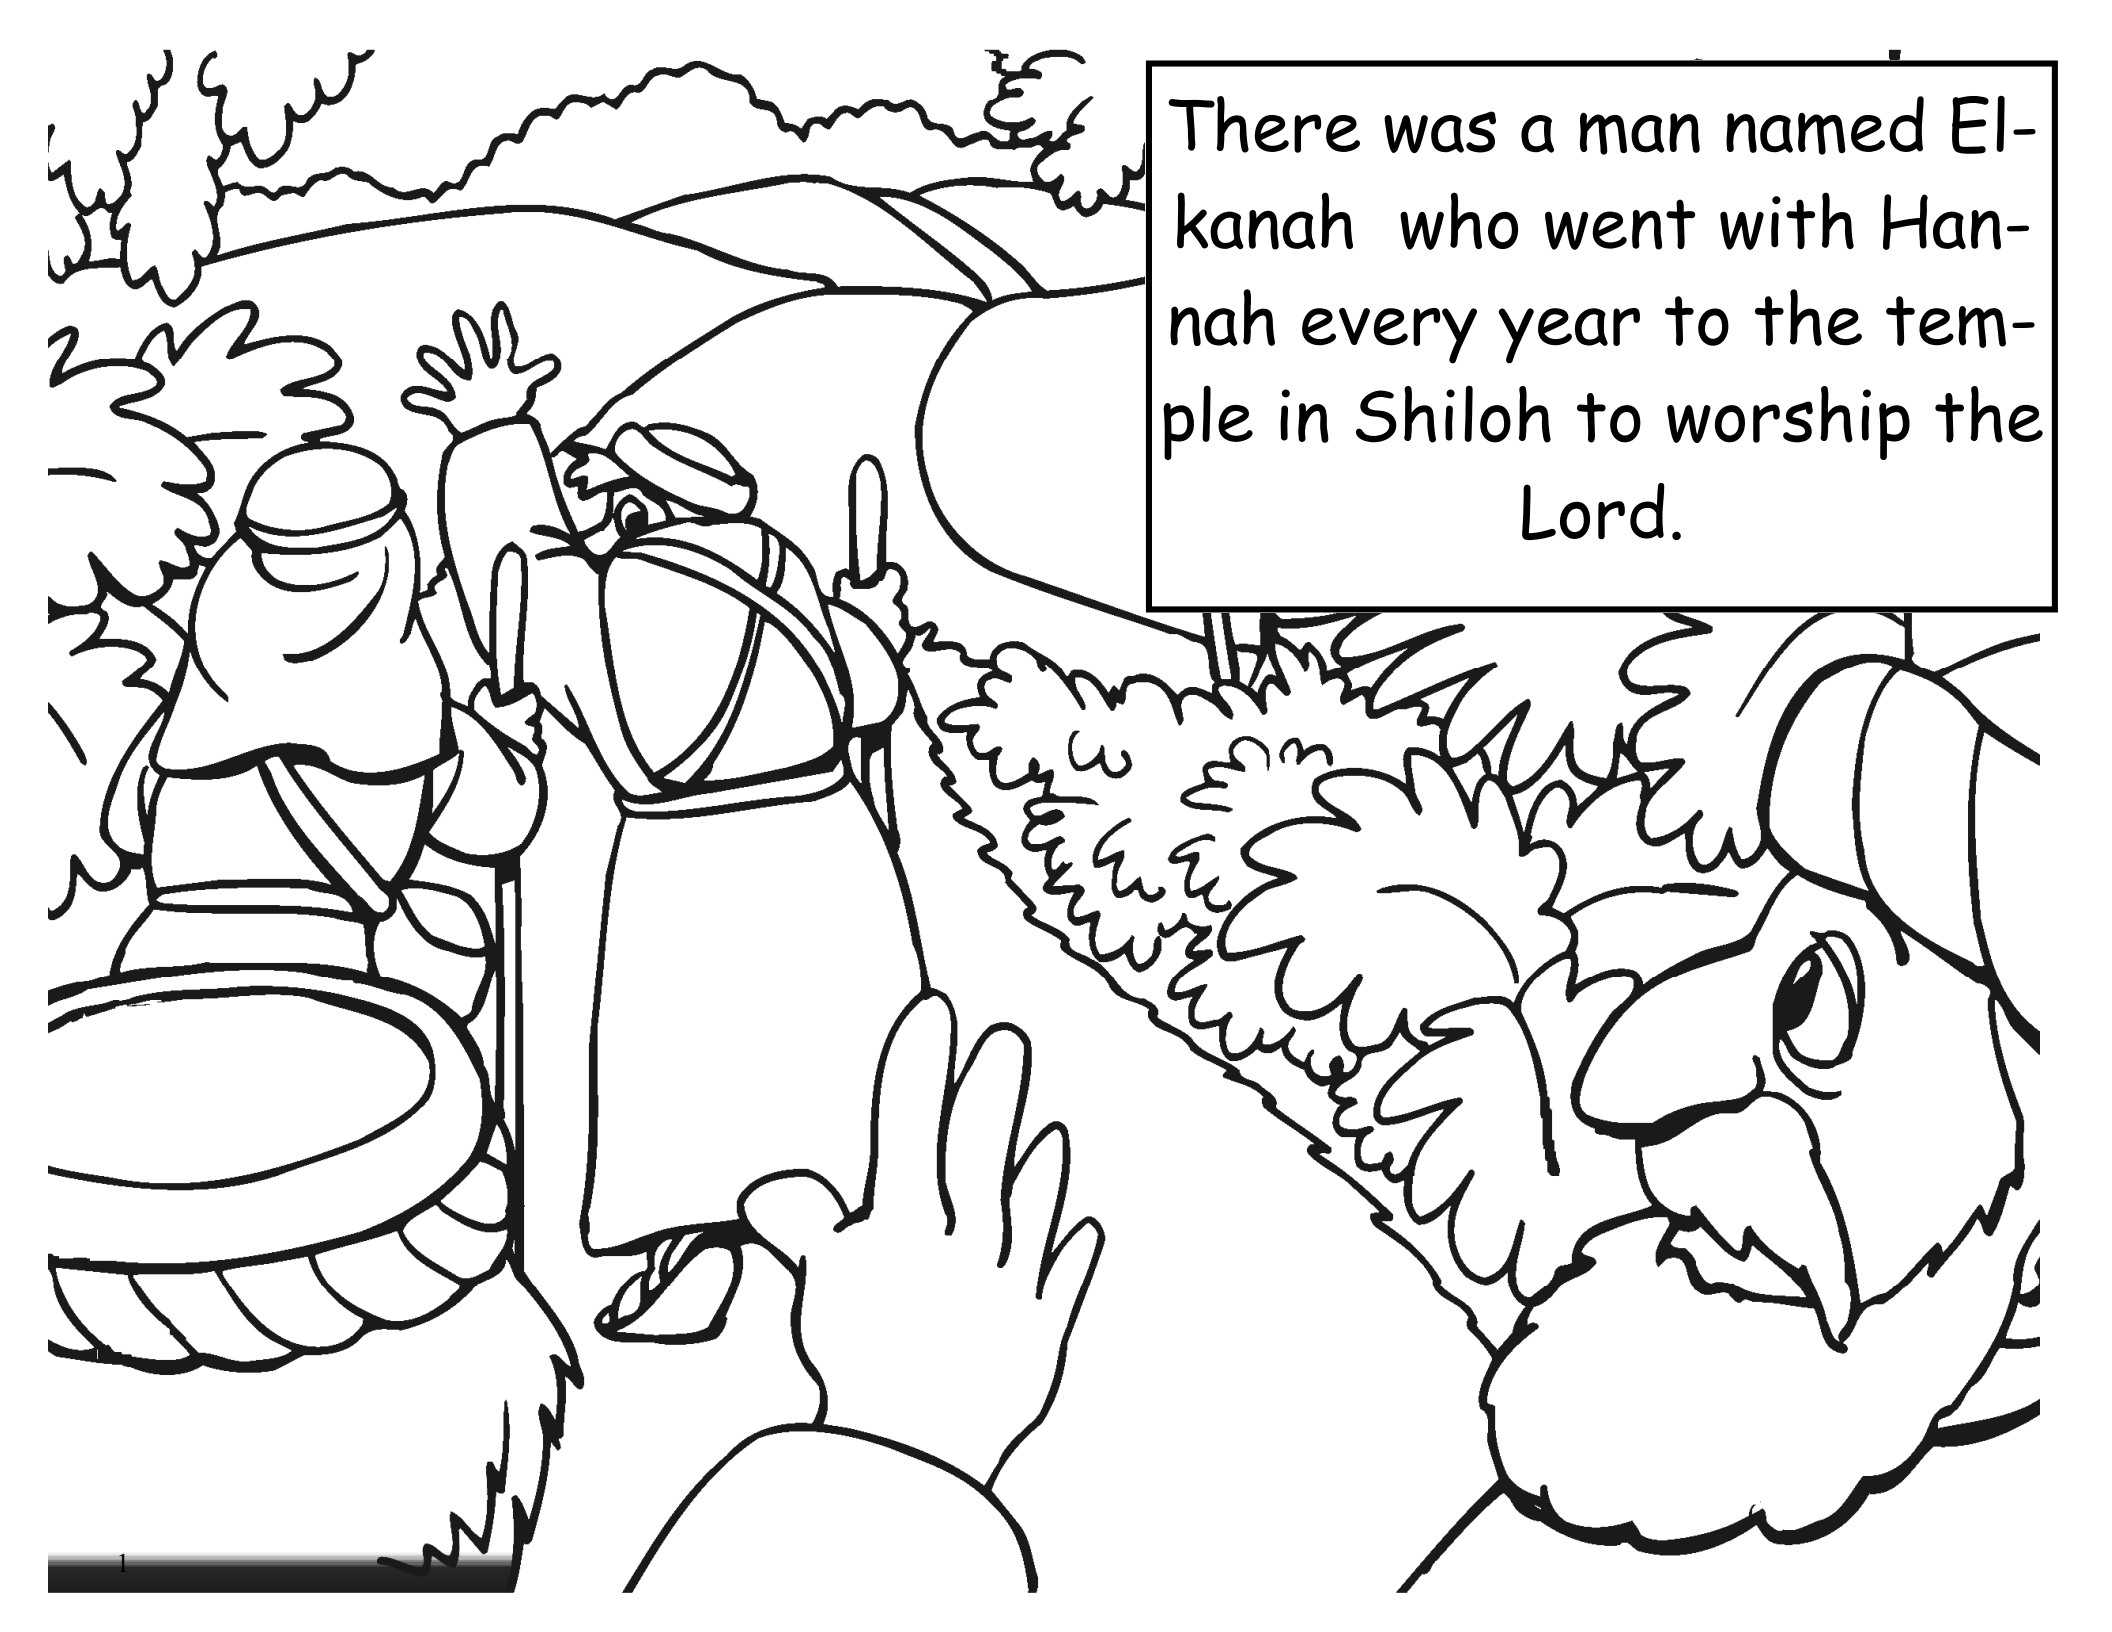

Hannah had no children. She prayed earnestly to the Lord at the temple that He would give her a son. She promised the Lord that her son would be dedicated to the service of the Lord for all his life.

O Lord, please give me a son!

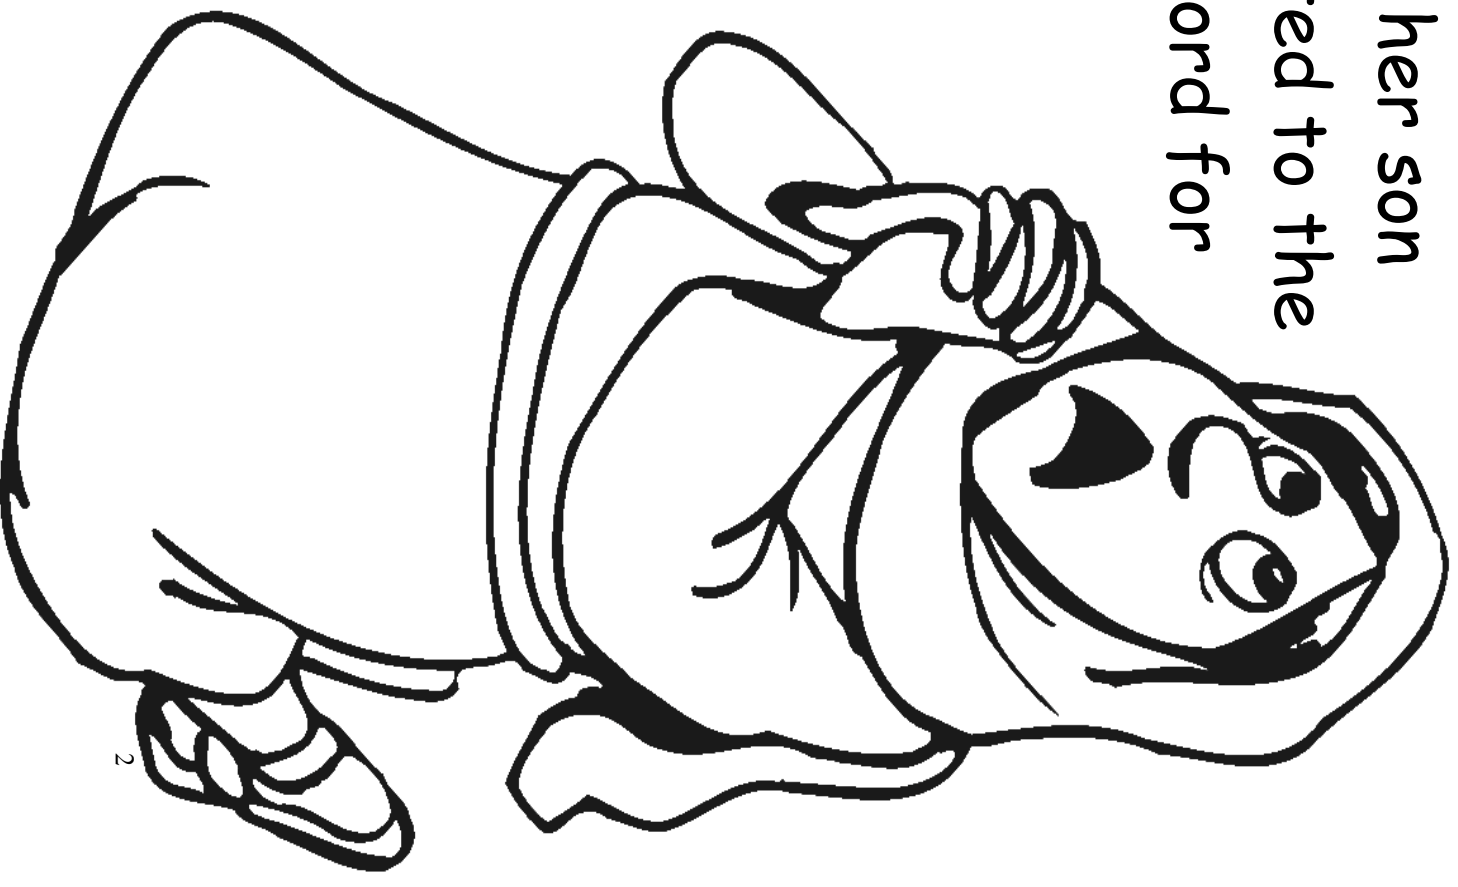

There was a man named Elkanah who went with Hannah every year to the temple in Shiloh to worship the Lord.
